Open a riverboat; stay away

Take out a circus float; it's your day

Fail to philosophize. Maybe they'll think you're wise anyway

Chorus = Intro

Don't mind a few gone down, a few gone down

Don't mind a few gone down, a few gone down

Don't pay them attention; they'll think that you care, and they'll never leave you alone

Don't mind them, just move on; just move on

Verse 2 = Verse 1

Gesture within to what you have sown. Gesture without to what you will own

Don't mind me shakin', as I shiver to the bone.

Move on to better things. Record what the movement brings, you're alone

Chorus

See if the roof don't fall through We'll see the truth install you my way

Dress like a circus float; it's your day

Don't mind. Don't mind me
